

Holiday Extras join the Business Travel Association

London, 03.02.2025 – The Business Travel Association (BTA) is delighted to welcome Holiday Extras as its latest partner, effective March 2025. This partnership aligns with Holiday Extras' commitment to supporting business travel and enhancing corporate travellers' experiences across the UK and internationally.

Holiday Extras has over 40 years' experience providing holiday extras, including airport parking, airport hotels, airport lounges, airport transfers, car hire, holiday insurance and UK breaks. Combining innovative technology with award-winning customer service, Holiday Extras' expert team helps over eleven million travellers every year with their travel needs.

Clive Wratten, CEO of the BTA, welcomed the partnership, saying: "We are thrilled to partner with Holiday Extras, a leading player in the UK's travel infrastructure. Its increased focus on supporting the business travel community complements our mission to drive excellence and innovation across the sector. Together, we'll work to enhance the traveller experience and reinforce the vital role of business travel in the UK."

Kayleigh Dawkins, Partnerships Development Manager at , Holiday Extras, said: "For more than 40 years we've been the UK market leader in holiday extras, and we're proud to bring the same expertise to the business travel community. Holiday Extras helps more than 11 million people have a better trip every year, and whether you need a lounge before your flight, secure and reliable parking at the airport or a transfer that'll get you to your meeting on time we've got you covered."
